concerning Mr. L. Fishman.

Leonard Onisim FISHMAN (FISHMAN), former Russian of Jewish origin, born on April 16, 1919 at Manchouli, Manchuria. According to his own statement, his father, Onisim Fishman, who died in Mongolia in 1923, was born at Soroka, Bessarabia, which formerly belonged to Russia and since 1920 forms a part of Rumania. Hence his claim to the Rumanian nationality, although he never was in Rumania and does not speak the Rumanian language.

He is reported to have arrived in Shanghai from Tientsin about two months ago. When registering with the local Rumanian Association he stated that prior to his coming to Shanghai he resided together with his mother in Tientsin for 16 years, his last known address in that city being 34/6 Dublin Road. Upon graduating from a local grammar school he attended a business college for a period and in 1938-1939 is reported to have been employed with Y. Wutaka & Company, Coal Dealers, 54 Via Firenze, I.C., Tientsin.

From various documents available at the local Rumanian Association it appears that Fishman has, since 1936, been in correspondence with the Royal Rumanian Legation in Japan, as well as with his relatives in Rumania with a view to the establishing his claim to the Rumanian nationality. It also appears that it is by no means certain that he will be successful in this.

Being a recent arrival in Shanghai he is practically unknown in the local Rumanian community. No information is also available as to his financial standing, although it is significant that he asked for a reduction of the usual registration fees ($5.00).

While in Shanghai he did not come to the notice of the Municipal Police in connection with any activities of an undesirable character.
